STEINBACH BIBLE COLLEGE

The following courses are available for audit or credit. Available online via Microsoft Teams (allowing for live interaction). In-class pending capacity limits and restrictions. For more information and to register, visit www.sbcollege.ca.

- “Becoming Christian Leaders in Marketplaces” with Terry Kaufman on Tuesdays from March 15 to April 5, 7-9:45pm. This course explores God's calling for followers of Jesus to mission in the marketplace. Sessions will discuss the challenges and opportunities of being a Christian leader in different contexts. Learn how to become Christian leaders from experienced leaders in business, public service, healthcare, and multicultural arenas.
- “Indigenous People & The Church” with Josh Dueck for one weekend: March 24 & 25 from 7-9:45pm and March 26 from 9am-4pm. Through conversations with Indigenous Christians, this course will provide a basic understanding of barriers created for Indigenous people living in Canada by historic and present practices of government and church. Topics will include: Residential Schools, the 60's Scoop, Canada's Justice System and Affects of Intergenerational Trauma. Each topic will conclude with a conversation about how together Indigenous and non-Indigenous followers of Jesus, for the sake of the Gospel, might dismantle these barriers.

DIGITAL MINISTRY DIRECTOR

One Hope Canada is a national ministry partnering with the local church to develop life-long followers of Jesus by clearly communicating the Gospel to more than 30,000 children and youth each year through Bible camps, community outreaches, and creative ministry strategies. The successful applicant will oversee digital ministry initiatives, including the development and North America-wide marketing of our Faith Spark discipleship app. This position is a virtual office environment; the applicant must live within Canada. See the full job posting at www.onehopecanada.ca/careers.
